Foreword

As you leaf through my pages, may the warm, happy memories of the classmates, teachers, activities, and events that were a part of your school life at Buda High School come alive before your eyes. Treasure me, and many years hence I can be your link with those acquaintances who you will share these recollections with though you be miles apart. Mellowed by sober thoughts, brightened by the humorous touch, enlivened by familiar faces, endeared by messages your friends have penned, I am very personally yours.

Messages

To The Annual Staff:

The History of Events of our 1959-60 School Year has been recorded by you in our yearbook, The Bulldog. The Students and Faculty are indebted to you for the many hours of work you have given to make this history of memories available to us. Congratulations to each of you for the excellent work you have done.

To The Seniors:

Success comes by hard labor. May each of you strive to make this a better world in which to live.

Will Elmer Ferguson
Superintendent

Our Thanks go to the people who have labored long and diligently to make this yearbook possible for on its pages are captured our moments of happiness, defeats, victory, work and play. If I might add one thought for those who look at our record on these pages I would say, "Tomorrow is going to have duties of its own sufficient to tax the strength we then have. Let us strive to keep it free from the mortgage of present shiftlessness."
