FOREWORD

We, the 1964 Bulldog staff, have done our best to compile the year's events for your enjoyment. We have tried to think of a few new and interesting ideas to catch and hold your attention.

Thanks to all of you, our last four years of life here at Buda High School have been most enjoyable. We sincerely wish each and everyone of you the best life has to offer.

I would also like to thank all of my capable assistants for all of the help and consideration they have given to make the 1964 Bulldog one of the best.

I wish to express my thanks to the entire staff, student body, and to the citizens of the community who have worked so diligently to make this a successful school year.

To this year's graduating class goes our sincere wishes for a successful and gratifying future. We hope that each of you will realize the ambitions and aspirations you have developed while a student at Buda High School. May you put your trust in God and strive to be trustworthy men and women.

Clifford W. Johnson

Congratulations,
Class of 1964. It is the sincere hope of the board of Education and the faculty that you will always uphold the ideals of your school. We are confident that you will become good citizens of your community and nation.

Our sincere thanks go to Mrs. L. S. Coers and the annual staff for sponsorship of this yearbook. Their efforts are much appreciated.

SENIORS
